this book is a tool for teaching and studying the great christian classic augustine s confessions it is a unique venture in which thirteen different scholars look at each of the thirteen books in the confessions and interpret their chapters in light of that book and in light of the rest of augustine s work the result is that the richness and ambiguity of augustine s work shines through as well as the richness and ambiguity of different readings of the confessions

please note this is a companion version not the original book sample book insights 1 to praise you is the desire of man a little piece of your creation yet to praise you is the desire of man because you have made us for yourself and our heart is restless until it rests in you 2 i ask who i am i am god who is lord i am most high utterly good utterly powerful most omnipotent most merciful and just i am deeply hidden yet most intimately present i am the perfection of both beauty and strength and i am always active always in repose 3 i do not know where i came from and i do not remember how i lived before i was born i was welcomed by the consolations of human milk and i did not wish for more than they were giving me 4 i was like an infant crying and throwing my limbs about i was not understood and when i did not get my way i was angry with my seniors for their disobedience and with free people who were not slaves to my interests catholic positions on contested moral issues are rejected by the majority in the secular west and are increasingly rejected by catholics themselves in this book david deane argues that there are two main reasons for this first the dominance of secular approaches deprives catholic positions of their claim to coherence second the catholic positions deane shows have lost contact with the theology on which they were originally based in response deane undertakes a deconstruction of the dominant secular positions and seeks to restore catholic positions to their theological roots the result of this is a moral theology reconnected with the trinitarian understanding of god and god s relationship with the world restored to its doctrinal foundations the moral theology that deane offers is more coherent more beautiful and more convincing than has been found in catholic moral discourse for centuries the vivid magisterial and long awaited biography of marcus aurelius the roman emperor and embodiment of the philosopher s king whose life and works still speak to us 2 000 years after his death book jacket the fact that over one hundred patristic sources may be found in the documents of catholic social teaching cst would suggest that patristic sources have not been forgotten as the title to this book suggests yet this study of every patristic source citation in twenty one cst documents since the late nineteenth century suggests that just such a conclusion should be drawn the cst documents in this study largely ignored the historical and literary contexts of the patristic sources and this had the concomitant effect of limiting appropriation of the fullness of their arguments in addition most of the patristic citations do not reflect the socio ethical concerns of the patristic authors themselves even when the patristic citations supported related theological themes usually they were relegated to footnotes this is not a study of themes or of theologies in the cst documents nor is it a study of the cultural and historical forces at work in the arguments made by those who drafted them rather it is a study of the rhetorical theological and or pastoral function of each patristic source citation in the cst documents in this respect each cst document stands on its own as a rhetorical tour de force for that reason the study concludes with a vision for the fair use of patristic sources in future cst documents
